

All Nepal Tour is a complete tour in Nepal, which offers rich ancient cultures and ethnic diversity. Our tour leads to a variety of attractions that offers and within reach into our tradition and culture. This tour explores with us the different areas and combines it with the simple pleasures of hiking through scenic countryside and the thrills of viewing the mighty Himalayan peaks from those quarters. There are many country trails, of which several of them are old trade routes or pilgrimage paths which lead through terraced hillsides, forested ridges, river banks, paddy fields; connecting picturesque hamlets and mountain villages.

During the tour, we will visit the key cultural and archaeological sites and spiritual symbols in the Kathmandu Valley. And after the Kathmandu Valley, we will head to the beautiful valley, Pokhara where stunning landscape and mountain panoramas is awaiting us. After the beautiful valley of Pokhara, we will continue our journey through the birthplace of Lord Buddha, Lumbini and explain its archaeological and religious importance. Finally, we will enter the famous Chitwan National Park (1979) and like the climax, we will be back in Kathmandu.

The most satisfying way to see Nepal and its people, their culture and rich heritage is certainly being walked or hiking like the traders or pilgrims. The thrilling experience of rafting in Trisuli River, Jungle Safari in Chitwan National park and encounter with wild animals, exploring the Pokhara city, boating at Phewa Lake and an eye-catching Himalayan panorama from Sarangkot are the main attraction of the Real Nepal Tour.
